**In communications with PCRM, these sponsors have indicated that they will no longer be funding research involving animals at the March of Dimes, but will instead contribute to non-animal programs. In your letters to these companies, you may want to thank them for this important first step, but urge them to instead support an entirely cruelty-free charity, like the many that can be found at www.HumaneSeal.org.
