Ingredients

Makes 4 Servings

- hot or mild salsa (1/2 cup)
- ground cumin (2 tsp.)
- 15-ounce cans black beans, drained (2)
- bread crumbs (1 1/2 cups)
- finely chopped scallions (1/4 cup + 2 tbsp.)
- kosher salt (to taste)
- black pepper (to taste)
- vegetable oil cooking spray ()
- ripe mangoes, peeled and cubed (2)
- finely chopped red onion (1/4 cup)
- finely chopped red bell pepper (1/4 cup)
- finely chopped fresh cilantro (2 tbsp.)
- fresh lime juice (2 tbsp.)
- sugar or agave nectar (2 tsp.)
- cayenne pepper (Pinch)
Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 200 F.
2. Combine the salsa, cumin, and black beans in a food processor and pulse until smooth. Add 1 cup bread crumbs, 1/4 cup scallions, salt, and black pepper.
3. Divide the mixture into small patties, roughly 1/8 cup each. Dredge the patties in the remaining 1/2 cup bread crumbs. Set the patties on a tray and refrigerate for 30 minutes.
4. While the bean cakes chill, combine the mangoes, onion, red bell pepper, 2 tablespoons scallions, cilantro, lime juice, sugar or agave nectar, and cayenne pepper and refrigerate until serving time.
5. Heat a nonstick large skillet over medium heat. Using cooking spray throughout the sauté process, sauté the cakes for about 3 minutes per side, watching carefully so the cakes don't burn.
6. Place the cakes on a baking sheet and place in the 200 F oven until all cakes are prepared. Serve the cakes with the salsa.
